

The ISU French & Francophone Studies program proudly presents the

Fall 2024 French Film Series

Wednesdays at 7:15pm in STV 101

This semester features first episodes of popular French TV series. Since they are available on paid streaming platforms, DVD copies of two films (Le grand voyage and Monsieur Ibrahim et les fleurs du Coran) are on reserve at Milner Library, and reflection questions posted to Canvas, for those who cannot make the screenings below.

SEPTEMBER 18: *Un village français (A French Village, 2009-2017) “Traces the experiences of various residents of a fictional small village just inside the occupation zone during WWII” (imdb.com); “a subtle, historically accurate look at ordinary people suddenly tested by war, defeat, and enemy invasion” (New York Times).

OCTOBER 16: *Lupin (2021-) Inspired by the adventures of Arsène Lupin, gentleman thief Assane Diop sets out to avenge his father for an injustice inflicted by a wealthy family” (imdb.com); “a refreshing twist on an old-fashioned character within a longstanding genre” (The Guardian).

NOVEMBER 20: *Astrid et Raphaëlle (Astrid, 2019-) “Autistic archivist Astrid Nielsen and impulsive inspector Raphaëlle Coste work together to solve crimes in and around Paris.” (imdb.com). “While the concept of a crime-solver who is considered ‘atypical’ is not new, and certainly the odd couple story is as old as time, Astrid feels fresh” (foreigncrimedrama.com).
